What's the Point

O morning sky of endless blue Tinged with purply-pinky hue You tell me of His mercies new Whose heart pursues my own

O geese in wingèd winter's flight Your honking cries arouse delight And lift my gaze to seek thy sight As wooing from His hand

> O softest breeze which skims my face And stirs with such mysterious grace My soul to reach for Love's embrace You brush me with His kiss

O snowflakes falling to the ground You pierce my heart without a sound To crave a purity only found Beneath a bloodied cross

O setting sun in half-light glowing Waning day's last glorious blush showing You paint with fire my spirit's own knowing— This life is fading fast

O stars of midnight's blackest sky Paraded forth, you pull my eye Toward One Who speaks this ceaseless cry: "I'm coming back for you."

O creeping fog to dawn's light clinging You whisper, Love's veiled message bringing, With haunting echoes faintly singing, "Lose all of you in Him

Residents meeting summary:

Minutes of the May meeting:

Newspapers: Residents appreciate that Noel delivers their papers and happy whatever time they receive it.

4WW: If you do not need assistance to get your 4WW you can leave at any time. Meal time is important to be enjoyed and time taken to consume all food and fluids and enjoy the social aspect of mealtime.

Phones: Residents must have access to their own phones for personal calls. Dect phones are used for call bells and emergencies and cannot be tied up with resident personal phone calls.

Alcohol consumption: Please be mindful – all residents need to consider alcohol consumption, increase falls risk if consuming large quantities and the impacts it has on others.

Smoking areas: Smoke is blowing into residents room which is not pleasant so please only smoke in the designated areas. Wing 3 top end is a NO smoking area

When passing residents in corridor: Please be patient and courteous by advising there is someone behind them in a respectful tone.

Royal commission: There has been very little reporting on the commission which confirms to Woods Point there is not a systemic failing of residential aged care facilities but a few that are not adhering to the required standard. Residents at the meeting all reported the appreciation of all the work every staff member does at Woods Point to make it what it is.

Next Resident/ Representative meeting to held: Thursday 6th June 2019

Entertainment

Woods Point residents were entertained by the ladies playing their ukuleles (first time performances) and singing. Songs sung were - 'Going to the Chapel', 'Country home', 'From a Jack to a King', and 'How much is that Doggy in the Window'. Residents were singing a tapping their feet and enjoyed the performance.

Activities

Joyce and Patty were enjoying afternoon tea with some fresh cakes that the kitchen whipped up

The residents enjoyed sitting in the courtyard. Soaking up the rays of sunshine while enjoying a breath of fresh air.

Provider responsibilities

Under the aged care law, providers are required to assist consumers to understand their rights and give each consumer a reasonable opportunity to sign the Charter.

Providers must give consumers a copy of the Charter that sets out:

□ signature of	provider's	staff	member:
- digitatal o di	provider o	Otan	,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,

□ the date on which the provider gave the consumer a copy of the Charter; and

\square the date on wh	hich the provider gave the consumer (or their a	uthorized person)	the opportunity to sign the Charter;

□ the consumer (or authorized person/'s signature (if they choos	е to sign); and

□ the full name of the consumer (and authorized person	, if	applicable).

The provider will need to retain a copy of the signed Charter for their records.

The forms will be sent out with billing or the DON/DDON will meet with the consumer (resident) / representative to go through the form and sign.

Family & Friends

Bentley Wood—Yarrawonga would like to inform family and friends that due to increasing costs of produce and wages, the prices of meals from 1st June 2019 are as follows:

- Lunch weekdays—$15.
- Evening meal weekdays—$10
- Weekends lunch —$20 and $15 for evening meal
- Public holidays—$25

These costs excludes partners

Charter of Aged Care Rights Changes:

From 1 July 2019, providers must give consumers a copy of the new Charter of Aged Care Rights signed by the provider. They must also ensure that the consumer or their representative has been given a reasonable opportunity to sign a copy of the Charter.

Asking for the consumer's signature allows them to acknowledge they have received the Charter and had assistance to understand it. Consumers are not required to sign the Charter and can commence, and/or continue to receive care and services, even if they choose not to sign the Charter.

Consumers

Consumers have the option of signing the Charter of Aged Care Rights (the Charter).

Consumers can receive care and services even if they choose not to sign.

If a consumer decides to sign the Charter, they are acknowledging that their provider has given them a copy of the Charter, and assisted them to understand:

☐ inform	nation	about	consume	r rights	in re	elation	to the	aged	care service;	and

□ information about consumer rights under the Charter.

Activities

No better way to start our day, than to share a special breakfast with friends.

Birthday celebrations for the Month of May

Commitment Ceremony

Woods Point this month celebrated its first Commitment Ceremony, with two of our residents Margot and Joe deciding they would like to hold their ceremony here at Woods Point amongst family and friends. The service was held at 3.00pm on Friday 17th May. Margot was beautiful in her very flattering, full length white gown, accompanied by a possie of white and green flowers. Joe went to great lengths to ensure he was appropriately dressed, and looking very dapper. There was more than one teary eye to be found amongst the residents as the service proceeded. After the formalities finished, the Champagne and food began. A wonderful time was enjoyed and with that – all here at Woods Point would like to wish Joe and Margot the very best for their future together.
